EXTERNAL COMMUNICATION CODE OF CONDUCT

MAY 2021

INTRODUCTION

This code of conduct document legislates the procedure concerning communication between the members/spiritual sons of CCF International Church and its associate ministries (both domestic and international) and all external ministries / organisations.

It is in place to establish, implement and maintain the processes needed for external communications involving all members/spiritual sons of CCF International Church and its associate ministries, both domestic and international (For easy reference we will refer to this group as simply “CCF”). This document aligns itself with the principles relating to the father/son doctrine, more specifically Set Man Principles.

This document identifies what “CCF” will communicate, when it will communicate, with whom it will communicate, how it will communicate and the process for which external parties should communicate in return.

Vision & Strategy

All strategies and plans from any external organization that require collaboration and support from “CCF” or any person who is a member/Pastor of CCF must be communicated to Roy Pillay, the presiding elder (set man) over “CCF”.

General Notifications

Alistair Pillay is responsible for all notifications to and from CCF International Church SA. Examples of such include; notifications and invitations from external churches/organisations, change of church times and special events.

Administrative Enquiries

Eleanor Pillay is the General Secretary of CCF International Church SA and is responsible for all administrative enquiries. Examples of such enquiries include; request for church bank details, international swift codes, travel letters, scheduling of appointments with Roy Pillay etc.

Five Fold Grace Carriers Ministry

We welcome partnerships and other forms of collaboration with other five fold grace carriers in the Body of Christ for the edification of our ministry and Kingdom advancement. All communication relating to potential collaboration must be entered into directly with Roy Pillay. This includes requests from external churches/organisations for preaching appointments for “CCF” Pastors/members as well as requests from external church leaders to preach at “CCF”

Doctrinal Material Support

We welcome biblical teaching notes and material that may be of help to “CCF”. Please direct all such communication to Eleanor Pillay.

International Apostolic / Prophetic Forum

Eleanor Pillay is responsible for the administration of the International Apostolic/Prophetic Forum, which includes sending notifications and enquiries to all participants as well as determining weekly study topics and perspectives for the week, change of Forum times etc. Please refer all new students to her.

Business Relations

Newman Rajoo is responsible for all Business Relations enquiries to and from “CCF”. This includes requests for the use of church or hall, engagement with community leaders.

International Enquiries

All international enquiries must be directed to Roy Pillay
